AND
NIAGARA 1812 BICENTENNIAL LEGACY COUNCIL

OPEN CALL FOR ENTRIES

INVITE SUBMISSION OF MEDALS COMMEMORATING THE WAR OF 1812
AND TWO HUNDRED YEARS OF PEACE

Create a medal that could land in the hands of the Prime Minister, the President of the United States and perhaps the Royal Family

$1,500 to be awarded

The Niagara 1812 Bicentennial Legacy Council and the Medalllic Art Society of Canada are joining forces to seek the best submission of a commemorative medal that depicts the War of 1812 and the 200 years of peace that will be celebrated during the upcoming bicentennial. The chosen medal will be reproduced and given to visiting dignitaries, politicians, sponsors, notable volunteers and the like, during the three years of the bicentennial celebrations.

All submissions will be showcased at the Rodman Hall Art Centre at Brock University from June to August of 2012. A $1,000 reward for the chosen design and $500 for a runner-up for their copyrights, and a special unveiling will take place during the Legacy Council's Opening Ceremonies Weekend, in June of 2012.
